A Great Hunt.

Last week Henry Kraft, Martin Eckstein, Ed. Habig, Jos. Goetz, Mart. Gosman, Ed. Kraft, and Andrew Eckert, chief marksmen, went hunting on Alex Ell's and the Wilsons farm. Result, 152 rabbits. Ed. Kraft got the champion on the Ell bottom farm; it weighed 11½ pounds. Andrew Eckert says the weather was too cold, and being close to Mrs. Hobbs residence there was not enough spirits to keep the crowd warm; if there had been they would have shot more.

ARE YOU A DEMOCRAT?

An old adage reads: "There is a place for everything," and for everything to be in its place, the LOUISVILLE DISPATCH should find a place in the home of every DEMOCRAT in the SUNNY SOUTH. The Dispatch is the people's paper, owned by the people, and is always ready to fight for the cause of the people. IT STANDS SQUARELY ON THE CHICAGO PLATFORM, without the aid or consent of the Gold Bug Monopolies, and a fair comparison of its news service (now being furnished over leased wires by the New York Sun, the Chicago Inter Ocean and the Northern Press Association) with that of any other paper, will fully verify its motto, "If you see it in the Dispatch it's so, and if it's so it is always in the Dispatch."

The Dispatch also has a staff of over 200 active correspondents in the South, and will POSITIVELY GUARANTEE MORE THAN DOUBLE THE SOUTHERN NEWS of any other Louisville paper. Get the Dispatch; it gives the news and tells the truth about it.

Daily, 8 pages; Sunday, 24 pages; Weekly, 8 pages. We club with the Weekly Dispatch at the remarkably low price of $1.25 for both papers in advance.
